

MILAN FASHION

The brief: To organise a memorable weekend break in Milan for a magazine beauty editor and her boyfriend for some Christmas shopping.

Our Solution: Three nights at the hip 4-star Townhouse hotel in a deluxe room, close to fashion outlet Il Salvagente. The couple enjoyed a great day out with a personal shopper and lunch in the Vittorio Emanuele Gallery as guests of Milanese hero Orlando Chiari in his historic ‘Camparino’ bar. To round up the weekend they enjoyed an amazing dinner at the Trussardi restaurant, a personal guided tour of the city centre and tickets to see Leonardo da Vinci’s Last Supper.

Those all important extras:

- Private chauffeur transfers in and out from Milan Linate airport.
- Personal shopper.
- Lunch at “Camparino” in the Vittorio Emanuele Gallery.
- Dinner for two at the Trussardi restaurant.
- Private guide for city exploration.
- Timed tickets for Leonardo da Vinci’s Last Supper.
- Dinner reservations and concierge service throughout.

“Milan was fantastic and everything you arranged was amazing. Thank you so for everything that you did – it made the trip extra memorable.”

Lauren M-S. – Milan Fashion, December 2007

Visit Tastes of Italy website now