

SUPER TUSCAN HOUSE PARTY

Our brief: A firm of solicitors approached us with a view to organising a long weekend in Tuscany for their in-house wine club.

Our Solution: We arranged a private house party in the Pisan hills with two days of tasting at excellent vineyards. On the first day the party visited San Gervasio for a visit to the cellars and production area, followed by lunch and tasting. The winery is particularly distinguished for its cru wines and the exceptional Vin Santo. Day two was a visit to Tenuta di Ghizzano, with lunch and tasting in the palace of Ginevra Venerosi Pesciolini – one of Italy’s most successful lady wine makers. All meals were organised in advance with a welcome dinner at the private residence and the following night at a local restaurant.

Those all important added extras:

- Winery appointments on the weekend including Sunday by special arrangement.
- Lunches with the wine makers.
- Wine tasting notes provided for all guests.
- Assistance for importation of private orders of the wines.
- Fully staffed residence with home cooked breakfast included.
- Double rooms for single occupancy.
- Private transfers to collect guests using different flights to Pisa.
- 24-hour concierge service from Tastes of Italy.

"The combination of wine tasting and a private houseparty was unbeatable. It was even more suprising to be able to do the whole thing over a weekend."

Fiona H. Super Tuscan Houseparty – October 2007

Visit Tastes of Italy website now